A MANA Founder Tribute. Rosemary McBride is remembered as an important founder and friendly neighbor who contributed not only to Martin Acres, but everyone she could help in any small way. A plaque in Martin Park is planned to remember Rosemary.

“Rosemary Howell McBride passed away early Sunday, February 11th, leaving an indelible footprint in the city she loved. A bit of a rebel, never without a cause, her advocacy of civic, environmental, humanitarian initiatives made a dizzying list, spanning Children's Alley, The Dairy Center, Eco-Cycle, the YWCA, Attention Homes, University Women, Open Space, Boulder County Democratic Women, The League of Women Voters, Hi-Mar Recreation Association, Martin Acres Neighborhood Association, Guardian Ad Litem of Colorado, The Religious Coalition for Reproductive Choice, Meals on Wheels, countless other grass roots efforts and a legacy of children who remember her as their pre-school teacher.” Daily Camera 2007

Thanks to...

Steve and Jan Clason who have been carrying MANA with their service and acting as MANA officers have held nearly every position several times each, have returned to private life in their Martin Acres home. Steve continues supporting his own causes with City Council and serves on the Boulder Library Board. MANA thanks the Clason's for their service.

MANA is recruiting a Zoning and Code Steering Committee member. There is a need in having someone who wants to help resolve neighborhood issues or simply can supply answers about city services. We also want to facilitate communication between neighbors issues as well as the usual noise, trash and weeds stuff. This person would have an opportunity to get involved in City Government, serve on committees and get to know their neighbors. Email the steering committee if interested and/or come to the next meeting on May 7th.
